

Avagar, a comprehensive system for professional recording voices, for introduction and informing your services to customers

Fulfilling objectives, value and durability of your business with professional and influential voices of Avagar speakers

Avagar, durable voice

Betis smart telecommunication system

Betis Company provider of design and production of electronic equipment

Technical-engineering company of Betis has been established in 2010 with registration code 43367 in Islamic Republic of Iran. It has 10-year experience and an experienced and professional staff. It provides its products with 12-month warranty unconditionally.

Some of our products: central equipment and telephone center of Betis, recording phone calls machine of Betis, control and monitoring equipment by SMS, smart telecommunication systems of Betis.

This company has established an online shop named 'Café tel' and a specialized shop for telecommunication and communicative equipment for viewing, remarking, fair review of different telecommunication and communicative equipment and for direct selling of its products.

We are also proud to announce that given the opening of specialized studio of recording voice of Betis under the trademark of Avagar, we can provide our dear customers with professional recording voice services using experienced radio speakers in professional studios.